AT RIGHT ANGLE AN EARLY SHINE AND AN EASY SHINE

For an EARLY Shine—use VIM.
For an EASY Shine—use VIM.
You don't have to RUB and RUB with

CLEANSER VIM & POLISHER

The Shine comes easily—quite as a matter of course—and that is why VIM is first favourite with both mistress and maid. VIM cleans and polishes without hard work. VIM is absolutely clean and wholesome. VIM accomplishes most in the least time. VIM is universal in its uses. Just as advantageous for cleaning woodwork, glassware and enamel, as it is for polishing metals of every description.

THE WOMEN'S HOSTEL.
Drawing Room Meeting at "Carshalton."

ADDRESS BY MRS. CLARE GOSLETT.

Many striking testimonies to the usefulness of the women's hostel in Eastbourne were given on Thursday afternoon in the drawing room at "Carshalton," the residence of Mrs. Kye, who presided over the meeting. Mrs. Goslett, who presided over the meeting, presided over the meeting in good work. Mrs. Goslett, who presided over the meeting, presided over the meeting in good work.

AN EPIDEMIC OF T.B.
BY J. P. HOLLAND.

An American visitor who had been making a tour of the coast from London to the south coast of England, was asked on the arrival in London, last week, about the prevalence of the disease in the country. He replied that he had seen a number of cases of the disease in the country, but that he had not seen any in the south coast. He was asked to give the names of the places where he had seen the disease. He replied that he had seen it in London, in the neighbourhood of the Strand, and in the neighbourhood of the Strand, and in the neighbourhood of the Strand.

MOTOR NOTES.
